ERIC MACAYAN BECOMES UNIVERSAL BANKER
Brattleboro Savings & Loan honors Macayan for his achievement and hard work

Brattleboro, Vermont – April 10, 2019 – Brattleboro Savings & Loan announced today the promotion of Eric Macayan to Universal Banker. Macayan, who has been with the Bank since 2017, recently earned his ABA Universal Banker Certificate, qualifying him to serve as a single point-of-contact for all customer sales, service, and referral needs. He will serve as a Saturday Supervisor at the central BS&L office in Brattleboro.

"Eric has exceeded all expectations as a fast learner, a team player, and a tireless advocate for the needs of our valued customers," said Theresa Masiello, BS&L Vice President and Senior Retail Officer. "We are thrilled to welcome him to this new position."

Macayan has more than a decade of experience in customer service and a Bachelor of Arts degree from the Bicol University College of Arts and Letters in the Philippines. He lives in Vernon, where he enjoys hiking and photography.

About Brattleboro Savings & Loan

Brattleboro Savings & Loan originally opened for business in 1912 as the Brattleboro Cooperative Savings & Loan Association. Today, as a state-chartered mutual savings bank, BS&L is the only remaining bank headquartered in Windham County. The bank operates 4 banking offices; two, including its main office, in Brattleboro, one in Wilmington and a new branch located in Bondville. BS&L also operates a mortgage lending office in West Dover. In addition to a full complement of business and consumer financial services, the bank offers investment advisory and wealth management services through its Park Place Financial Advisors division.

Additional information on BS&L is available at www.brattbank.com.
