Bondville, Vermont – April 1, 2019 – Brattleboro Savings & Loan announced today that two new hires have joined the team at their recently-opened Bondville location. Timothy Morin will be the new Branch Manager, and Deborah Madden will serve as Universal Banker. With the addition of these hires, the Bondville branch employs 3 members of the local community.

“We are thrilled to offer the people of Bondville and the surrounding area a convenient location for their banking services,” said Bank President and CEO Dan Yates. “With decades of experience in financial and customer service between them, Deborah and Timothy are the right people to help us grow our presence in the community.”

Deborah Madden previously worked at Raymond James Investment Advisors where she served as Operations Specialist for several years. Prior to that, she was Client Service Associate at RBC Wealth Management. Deborah is a member of the Manchester Lion's Club.

“Deborah's broad range of experience supporting customers and business operations will be an invaluable contribution to the practice,” said Theresa Masiello, Vice President and Senior Retail Officer. “We are delighted to welcome her.”

Timothy Morin has years of experience in the mortgage industry in the greater Boston area, where he originated loans and ran several mortgage production offices. He has also worked extensively in sales and business development, including several years with the Association of Restaurant Owners for Sustainable Earth.

Said Masiello, “Timothy's proven leadership in building and managing financial services practices is precisely what we need as our Bondville office grows roots in the community. It's exciting to have him at the helm of day-to-day operations.” The BS&L Bondville branch, located at 59 VT Route 30, opened in January.
