DONNA RATHBUN PROMOTED AT BRATTLEBORO SAVINGS & LOAN

Brattleboro, Vermont – June 14, 2018 – Donna Rathbun has been promoted to Compliance Officer and BSA/AML Officer at Brattleboro Savings & Loan. This leadership role has responsibility for ensuring that the bank is compliant with all banking laws and regulations. A thirty-four-year banking professional, Ms. Rathbun joined BS&L in 1994 as Branch Manager. Ms. Rathbun assumed the role of Assistant Vice President in 2005 and was promoted to Assistant BSA Officer in 2009. She is a Chairperson of the Business Advisory Committee of the Windham Regional Career Center, as well as a Commissioner/Board Member of the Brattleboro Housing Authority.

“I am very pleased that Donna has agreed to take on this critical role” said Dan Yates, President and CEO of Brattleboro Savings. “Ensuring that we are in compliance with the many rules and regulations under which we operate is not only expected of us, it is the way in which we should conduct ourselves for our customers, and Donna is a great choice to lead this effort.”

About Brattleboro Savings & Loan

Brattleboro Savings & Loan originally opened for business in 1912 as the Brattleboro Cooperative Savings & Loan Association. Today, as a state-chartered mutual savings bank, BS&L is the only remaining bank headquartered in Windham County. The bank operates 3 banking offices; two, including its main office, in Brattleboro, and a new branch located in Wilmington. BS&L also operates a mortgage lending office in West Dover. In addition to a full complement of business and consumer financial services, the bank offers investment advisory and wealth management services through its Park Place Financial Advisors division.
