STEPHANIE HUESTIS JOINS BRATTLEBORO SAVINGS & LOAN

Brattleboro, Vermont – June 14, 2018 – Stephanie Huestis has joined Brattleboro Savings & Loan as Vice President and Commercial Banking Officer. This role has responsibility for growing the bank’s commercial loan and deposit base and portfolios. A twenty-nine-year banking veteran, Ms. Huestis brings twenty years of lending experience. She is a Vice Chair of the United Way of Windham County board of directors, as well as an Incorporator of Kurn Hattin Homes for Children and past President of the Brattleboro Area Chamber of Commerce.

“Stephanie epitomizes what it means to be a community bank professional” said Dan Yates, President and CEO of Brattleboro Savings. “With Stephanie’s background, experience and commitment to the communities we serve, we couldn’t be more excited that she decided to join our family.”

About Brattleboro Savings & Loan

Brattleboro Savings & Loan originally opened for business in 1912 as the Brattleboro Cooperative Savings & Loan Association. Today, as a state-chartered mutual savings bank, BS&L is the only remaining bank headquartered in Windham County. The bank operates 3 banking offices; two, including its main office, in Brattleboro, and a new branch located in Wilmington. BS&L also operates a mortgage lending office in West Dover. In addition to a full complement of business and consumer financial services, the bank offers investment advisory and wealth management services through its Park Place Financial Advisors division.

Additional information on BS&L is available at www.brattbank.com.
