

Karen Fortier Joins Brattleboro Savings & Loan

Dan Yates, President of Brattleboro Savings & Loan, is pleased to announce that Karen Fortier has joined the Bank to manage its newest office, currently under construction in the Black Mountain Square Plaza on Putney Road. “We are thrilled that Karen has joined the bank. Her years of banking experience and enthusiastic approach to her relationship with her customers is well-known. Over the past year Karen has championed both her team, and her customers, through many organizational changes, and we have already heard from many of our current customers, as well as many new customers how much they have enjoyed working with her during her previous time at Merchants Bank”, said Yates.

“Our goal is to bring the best of the best together at BS&L to offer the highest level of attention and service to our customers, our number one focus is to help our customers achieve their financial goals and to support our communities grow and prosper.” Yates added.

Headquartered in southern Vermont, Brattleboro Savings & Loan is one of the states’ few remaining locally headquartered and depositor owned banks, and the state’s only 100% solar powered bank. Brattleboro Savings & Loan, affectionately known as BS&L, serves its community with excellence, trust, and care, and Karen Fortier will be a wonderful addition to the team.
