

Chief Financial Officer Thomas H. Martyn, appointed Chief Operating Officer.

Dan Yates, president & CEO of Brattleboro Savings & Loan, announced today that Thomas H. Martyn has been appointed Chief Operating Officer of Brattleboro Savings & Loan, in addition to his duties as Chief Financial Officer, a position he has held at the Bank for the past four years, following a four year service on the Board of Directors.

Prior to his time at BS&L, Tom served as chief operating officer of Pieciak & Co., here in Brattleboro, where he developed Pieciak Payroll Services, Inc. and served as its president. Tom has also held several positions in the Brattleboro area including as chief financial officer of an organic spice and coffee trading company and in a financial management position at the Holstein Association.

"Since joining the Bank in 2011, Tom has established himself as an invaluable partner to me, and has proven himself to be a trusted leader and strategic thinker." said Yates. "He has added significant experience to our senior management team and I am confident that his skills will continue to contribute greatly in moving the Bank to the next level".
